

Role of the President

The President is the public representative of the Board. The President's responsibility is to raise the awareness of the Board's direction and work with the public, with the membership, and with the various levels of government.

In addition to fulfilling the regular duties of a member of the Board of Directors, the President is expected to support Britannia and its policies internally and externally in order to strengthen Britannia's ability to fulfill its purpose.

The President is also the person who, in the absence of Board or Executive meetings, exercises the governing authority of the Board.

The President is the public face of Britannia, its programs and policies and is responsible for promoting Britannia in keeping with Britannia's leadership role in the Grandview Woodland Strathcona communities.

Specific Duties of the President:

- To chair the Annual General Meeting of the Society and give the President's Report
- To chair the Board of Management meetings
- To chair the Executive and Personnel Committees
- To set the Agenda with the Executive Director for the Board of Management meetings
- To set the Agenda with the Executive Director for the Executive and Personnel Committee
