Auxiliary Children's Activity Leader – 3-5 (ECE/ECEA) & Out of School Care

Britannia Child Care Department envisions early education and care spaces where children, educators, and families walk alongside each other to co-create diverse, equitable and respectful communities.

We currently have openings for Auxiliary Children's Activity Leader – 3-5 (ECE/ECEA) and Auxiliary Children's Activity Leader – Out of School Care positions to support our programs at Grandview Terrace and Eagles in the Sky within the Britannia Child Care Department, including our 3–5 daycare and school age programs.

We are seeking caring, collaborative, and responsive educators who value relationships, inclusion, and meaningful engagement with children, families, and communities. Ideal candidates demonstrate a strong sense of responsibility, flexibility, and professionalism and are able to step into programs with confidence and adaptability, sometimes on short notice. We welcome individuals who are passionate about creating nurturing environments where children's curiosity, well-being, belonging, and learning are supported through reflective and inclusive practices aligned with the BC Early Learning Framework.

WHAT WE OFFER

- Competitive wages and opportunities for hours across the Child Care Department
- Ongoing professional learning, mentorship, and educational support
- Opportunities to gain experience across a variety of childcare settings and age groups
- A collaborative team environment grounded in reflective practice, inclusion, and relationship-based care

QUALIFICATIONS

- Early Childhood Education Certificate or Diploma (ECE/ECEA certification preferred)
- Minimum Qualifications: Responsible Adult Certificate is required for school age programs only, supported by relevant experience working with school age children in group care settings
- Current First Aid Certification and Food Safe Certification
- Clear Criminal Record Check
